MORE QUALITY TIME

You'll find affordable eateries offering casual food options and unique tastes from countries around the world. Pick up new hobbies, explore museums, and enjoy the scenery with the windows down on Route 66. Our region offers more opportunities for you to spend quality time with those who matter most.

MORE ADVENTURE

Whether you're retired, raising a family, or enjoying the single life, the region offers adventure activities to get your heart racing. You'll find thousands of miles of hiking and biking trails, rivers and lakes for boating, fishing, and kayaking, and many state parks, as well as the Mark Twain National Forest.

MORE AFFORDABLE

Outdoor recreation options are accessible and affordable, many museums and attractions offer free admission, and commercial jet service makes it quick and easy to visit the region. Community festivals and events, as well as a variety of lodging options provide a way for all to experience the region's culture.

"It's a beautiful place to visit...we get a lot of people that like to travel through here to take in all the tourist events we have. We have great wineries, we've got great fishing. You can stay a lifetime here or just pass through for a visit."
